

Imani Winds and Catalyst Quartet in a program highlighting experiences of (im)migration, featuring a new work by Jessie Montgomery* inspired by the Great African-American Migration from the lens of her great-grandfather. It brings together spirituals and work songs that reflect his travels from Mississippi to the West, North, then back to Georgia. Through the special timbral effects of this mix of winds and strings, it transforms these stories, reflecting them in music, and continues the storytelling tradition passed through her mother: playwright, actor and teacher, Robbie McCauley.

* commissioned by Music Accord and the Sphinx Organization - available spring 2020
